

PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICE

Fort Benning, GA

(706) 545-3512 / 545-2211

FORT BENNING – Lt. Col. Neal F. McIntyre will assume command of the 30th Adjutant General Battalion (Reception), 192nd Infantry Regiment from Lt. Col. Charlie P. Holt during a change of command ceremony at 9 a.m. June 20 on Pomeroy Field.

McIntyre was commissioned in 1989 as a Field Artillery second lieutenant following his graduation from Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ky.

His most recent assignment was in Virginia where he served as the Chief, Requirements Branch, Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations, Human Resources Command.

His military service include overseas tours in Germany and Iraq.

He and his wife Catherine are the parents of a daughter, Hallie.

Holt has been reassigned to Fort Jackson, S.C., where he will serve as the U.S. Army Adjutant General School's director of training.

The 30th AG Battalion receives, evaluates and processes all incoming basic training Soldiers, preparing them for training at the Infantry Training Brigade or the 192nd Infantry Regiment.

For more information, call the Public Affairs Office at (706) 545-2238. After duty hours and on weekends, call (706) 545-2218.

####

Home of the Infantry - Future Home of the Maneuver Center